Islamic Value of the Week

Islamic Value Of The Week

"Respecting Teachers"

Teaching is one of the most respectful and valuable professions in the world. In religion Islam, this profession has more importance as our beloved Prophet Muhammad (SAW) introduced himself as a teacher.

Allah Almighty says in Holy Quran: "Like (a favour which you have already received) in that We have sent among you a Messenger of your own, rehearsing to you Our verses, and purifying you, and instructing you in scripture and wisdom, and in new knowledge" (Quran, 2: 151).

According to this verse of Holy Quran Holy Prophet (SAW) were sent to teach about the Holy Book Quran, the wisdom and unknown things to the people of this world.

Prophet Muhammad:
"and I was not sent to you, but to be a Teacher!"

Please Remember To Always Respect Your Teachers

This Week...

For everyone's safety and wellbeing, we have installed over twenty additional wall-mounted hand sanitizers in classrooms and around the school. We maintain our vigilant approach regarding all advised health and safety precautions. Thank you for playing your part – always wearing your own face-mask, dropping and collecting your child outside of the buildings, and making appointments.

Break Times

Due to the extended hours, student breaks have also been extended including time outside in the class group 'bubble' for physical exercise. For now, students do not require PE uniform. We have ample shaded areas outside, but nevertheless please ensure your child has:

- a plain sun cap / hat

- sunscreen (with high protection factor e.g., 50 SPF)

Thank you for continuing to provide your child with a healthy packed lunch and water.

On Wednesday 20th October students are invited to come to school dressed as a book character as part of our focus on literacy. There will be a series of special activities on this day for the children, and we will communicate the details shortly.

We will be sending an online sign-up link in the coming few days, along with further details. These meetings are to provide 'settling-in' information to parents and will be conducted by the Primary Class Teacher and Secondary Form Tutor.
